CONSTRUCTION GROUP

ABOUT US

At LMS Construction Group, we don't just build spaces — we create masterpieces.

From high-end corporate offices and industrial facilities to complete warehouse fit-outs built to any specification, we turn visions into reality with precision and flair. Whether it's a brand-new factory, a high-end renovation, or a specialized sporting arena, we deliver with the same level of excellence.

With our full turnkey approach, you get one team that does it all—eliminating the hassle of juggling multiple contractors. Electrical, plumbing, bricklaying, plastering, painting, and more—every detail is covered under one roof, ensuring efficiency, quality, and seamless execution.

LMS Construction Group is led by Luke Spolander & Kyle Ainsley, supported by a highly skilled management team boasting 108 years of combined experience. We set the standard for quality, reliability, and innovation.

When you choose LMS Construction Group, you're not just getting a contractor—you're getting a partner committed to building your vision, delivering on time, and exceeding expectations.
